NNIT executive selected for PharmaVOICE 100

Brooke Casselberry, Senior Director, NNIT R&D Consulting has been chosen for the 2021 PharmaVOICE 100.

The PharmaVOICE 100 is an annual list comprised of the most inspirational people from across the life sciences industry. It includes forward-thinking visionaries that represent a broad set of specialties and include entrepreneurs, innovators, and change agents.

Brooke Casselberry is a seasoned Regulatory expert who has been in the industry for over 20 years. She specializes in Regulatory Informatics and has made a name for herself by actively leading, participating in, and supporting various industry organizations and their educational efforts. She was recently appointed to the DIA Annual Meeting Committee where she is part of a global team of volunteers who help to identify important themes and shape cross-functional programming for the Annual Meeting.

Mark Ohrvall, USA Vice President/Regional Head at NNIT comments, “Brooke is a great example of the type of talent we have attracted to the NNIT US team. She is a leader and frequent mentor for her team. She understands the critical systems and processes that support Regulatory and how regulatory data is used across the enterprise. She is thoughtful about her customer work and is respected for her knowledge and her commitment to customer success. We couldn’t be prouder of her success and this wonderful recognition of her hard work.”

Brooke Casselberry adds, “I am thrilled to be part of this year’s PharmaVOICE 100 and included in such a diverse and accomplished group. There are so many exciting things happening in the Regulatory space, so I am glad to bring attention to the discipline. The recognition serves as great motivation.”

The PharmaVOICE 100 are being honored in the July/August issue of PharmaVOICE.
