KTM and HG Stickers extend solid partnership for 2013

KTM Motorsports and Henrick Gustavsson of HG Stickers are pleased to announce that their long-term partnership has been extended through 2013 when HG Stickers will continue to be the official sponsor for both KTM's official Motocross factory team, the Red Bull KTM Factory Racing, and the KTM Enduro Factory Team.

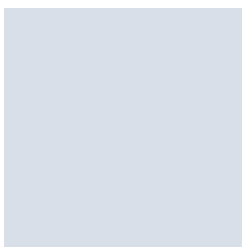

Pit Beirer, Head of KTM Motorsports said the company was delighted to continue cooperating with HG Stickers whose high quality decals have become an integral part of the look of the KTM factory bikes. HG Stickers owner Gustavsson also confirmed he is proud to see his contract as official sponsor to the factory teams continue for the 2013 season.

"We are very happy to be extending our relationship with HG Stickers," Beirer said. "Our partnership is based on mutual respect and trust in each other's product and the quality of service that we are both are able to deliver."
