Evorich Flooring Featured on PETS Magazine

Evorich Flooring Group has been featured on the latest issue of PETS Magazine; for home owners who keep pets, they may want to find out ways on how to make the home more pet friendly. So, Pets Magazine, together with renowned real estate developer, Far East Organization came out with a great idea in organizing the "Pets & Home Seminar" at the charming home of Cashew Villas this October.

The event is so overwhelming and successful such that the organizers have to hold another seminar in the following month.

"The event can be considered as the first in Singapore pet friendly home talk jointly organized by popular PETS Magazine and Far East Organization; we are pretty excited to be part of that event. We like to thank the organizers for giving Evorich this opportunity."

said Jacky Tan, Senior Marketing PR Manager at Evorich Flooring.

Evorich Flooring group shared the important tips and care needed for a pet friendly home. Home and pets owners are also introduced and educated on the pet friendly flooring options available to them in Singapore.
