This bi-annual event will be organized by SPLASH!, Australia's leading magazine for the swimming pool and spa industry; and also with the help of

During the event, Evorich Flooring will be sharing with the professionals of the pool and spa industry in Asia Pacific, about how outdoor decking is done in Singapore and what are the common types of outdoor decking materials used for construction of swimming pools in Singapore.

"Piscine Splash Asia Conference will be a very good branding platform for Evorich Flooring Group. We like to thank the event organisers for giving us this wonderful opportunity; to represent the local outdoor wood and decking industry to speak to the many professionals of the pool and spa industry in the Asia Pacific region."

said Mr Jacky Tan, the senior marketing PR manager for Evorich Flooring.

"We are glad to share our decking experience and knowledge at this upcoming significant event at Marina Bay Sands Convention Center and also be more recognized in the Asia Pacific's decking industry.
