Everise has a fluid people-first strategy, seeking input from their people throughout the year, which has created valuable programs such as the Kudos and Rockstar recognition programs, for which employees to receive praise and rewards from small accomplishments to bigger, more impactful achievements. The company encourages fun in the workplace and showcases employees their talents through lip-syncing music videos, personalized GIFs, and online gaming tournaments. Everise’s personal and career development programs are also highly regarded by their employees. The Everise Accelerator program and Everise University initiatives provide 24/7 access to information, and personalized guidance to determine the best way for them to grow within the company.

“I am so delighted that Everise is setting the Gold Standard for an Inspiring Workplace in North America and has been recognized as one of the Top 100 Workplaces for D&I Initiatives from Mogul. These awards believe in recognizing and shaping innovative, forward-thinking organizations of the future and foster change by shining a light on creative workplaces – and our light is shining bright. We have always been people-first and we believe that a great company revolves around great people, “ said Sheena Ponnappan, Chief People Officer of Everise.
