MetroChic and MetroChic blanc – Exquisite drinking glasses round off the extremely elegant collections

Contemporary design with an Art Deco attitude – the MetroChic and MetroChic blanc Signature collections from Villeroy & Boch represent perfect timeless elegance. The crockery, cutlery and gift items unite Art Deco style elements with state-of-the-art design, creating a breathtaking look. Boasting a clear and distinct design, exquisite drinking glasses were developed for 2020 accentuating the elegance of MetroChic with confident understatement while adding a harmonious finishing touch to the entire collection.

The MetroChic Glass design was created for discerning connoisseurs. The new high-quality crystal glasses feature a pared-down look and provide the perfect drinking experience. The large surfaces allow wine and spirits to develop their fine aromas in the fuller bowls, which taper upwards slightly. Available in sets of 2, all of the glasses have been made with extremely thin glass. High, very fine stems make the red and white wine goblets as well as champagne flutes appear very delicate, while the cognac glass with a shorter stem sits comfortably in the hand.

The MetroChic collection with its varied, geometric decoration in the classic colours black and gold on pure white Premium Bone Porcelain offers an individual look and a variety of possible combinations. The design concept combines round shapes with clear contours, deep black lines with fine splashes of gold and creates exciting, never-ending statements of style and design on the table by mixing and matching various pieces of crockery. The hand-polished, 20-carat gold finish is protected by the innovative “Inglaze Gold” technology.

The plain MetroChic blanc version is the go-to tableware for an understated table setting. The pure white Premium Bone Porcelain features a glossy sheen and a fine thickness, which gives the stylish crockery its lightness and translucency. MetroChic and MetroChic blanc both know how to impress – whether solo, as the complete table setting or combined together for an expressive individual arrangement. High-quality accessories and gift items are available, including a cake stand, a vase and a lantern with translucent biscuit porcelain, that match the classic dinner sets consisting of various plates, cups, platters and bowls.

The perfect table companion for MetroChic and MetroChic blanc is the cutlery of the same name that radiates pure elegance with its fine lines, unusual proportions and rounded contours. The high-quality stainless steel cutlery with its precise design lends an inspiring touch to the table setting, while MetroChic d’Or featuring a gold finish adds expressive highlights.
