NewWave Stars – High-quality gifts with a personal touch

Trillions of stars produce bright spots, typical constellations and ever-changing colour gradients and shades in the dark night sky. Symbols of the moon, stars and astrology whisk us away to faraway galaxies and are currently en vogue. They can be found in the world of fashion, jewellery and interior design, and even award-winning restaurants have been influenced by this mystical world.

The NewWave Stars gift collection unites celestial bodies in the shape of their corresponding constellations on porcelain. The décor of the high-quality

NewWave mug combines a dark blue background on pure white porcelain with subtle, gold shimmering zodiac signs. This shiny gold metallic finish enhances the look of the zodiac signs while accentuating the charm of the décor. NewWave Stars brings together the astronomical and astrological study of the night sky with a distinctly stylish décor. The twelve mugs (300 ml) also represent uniqueness: they are individual gifts for special people who are interested in the stars and zodiac signs, who appreciate the best-selling NewWave design and who want to enjoy a moment of indulgence by celebrating a good tea or coffee served in this extravagant mug.
