

Mar 02, 2012 06:28 EST

February's most-read on IntraFish: PE fund targets seafood, non-certified shrimp sold as certified

The fallout from the Alaskan salmon fishery's decision to pullback from the Marine Stewardship Council (MSC) program still made waves in February, but it was the news that executives with a background of investing in seafood are setting up a new fund that came out on top in reads.

Pacific Seafood Group's legal woes also got IntraFish readers clicking, as did the news Cumbrian Seafoods had been supplying Asda with Best Aquaculture Practices (BAP)-labeled shrimp that wasn't certified, a story broke by IntraFish.

To review the top 20 stories, click here. You don't have to be a subscriber to access this page. If you like the look of the stories and want to read more, contact us for a week free trial to the market leader in seafood, aquaculture and fisheries news.

The IntraFish Media group is regarded as the world's leading seafood publication with overall more than 20.000 paying subscribers worldwide (104 countries). IntraFish consists of the following titles: IntraFish.com and.no, FiskeribladetFiskaren, FBFI.no, Seafood International, Seafood Processor FishFarming International, Fishing News International, Fishing News, weekly and Rybatskaya Gazeta.

Contacts

Kim Tran

Press Contact

Senior Market Analyst

IntraFish Business Intelligence

kim.tran@intrafish.com